

DAMAGE ESTIMATES REPORTED BY ASIAN AND PACIFIC COUNTRIES: METEOROLOGICAL DISASTERS - TROPICAL CYCLONES, FLOODS, DROUGHT - DURING 1984

Country and Source of data	Type of disaster	Region affected	Human damage				Damage to houses and buildings				Material damage to farmlands (in ha)	Damage to agricultural production					Damage to public work facilities				Total estimated or accounted damage cost dead/ missing	injured	homeless	affected persons	destroyed	damaged	affected	total		monetary damage	crops (in tons)	livestock (in heads)	fruit plants (in numbers)	others 1)	monetary damage	roads 2) (Km)	bridges (sites)	monetary damage		others 3/ damage
Hong Kong Royal Observatoy	rain storms floods, land- slides, fog	Various districts and territory wide	4	8	1,019	955	150	16	213	379	$HK 0.42 million	99	N.A.	N.A.	N.A.	0	N.A.	8	0	$HK 1.51 mill	a 7	b 46) $HK2.04 mill typhoon Wyne	various districts	0	0	0	20	1	1	0	2	N.A.	N.A.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	$HK 0.1 mill	0	1)
	typhoon Ike	various districts	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	N.A.	0	0)

* Covered by insurance: over-all losses are estimated to be much higher.

Source: Reports on damage caused by cyclones, floods and drought, as returned to Natural Resources Division of ESCAP from ESCAP member countries. The reporting agency is listed under each country heading.

Note: N.A. = not available

1. for Hong Kong: pond fish and marine culture fish in ha.
for India: cotton and oil seed
2. for Hong Kong, Thailand, Japan, Republic of Korea: sites
3. a) ships lost or damaged: b) landslides;
c) schools, kindergardens, temples