

Damage estimates reported by Asian and Pacific countries and areas due to hydro meteorological disasters - tropical cyclones, floods, droughts - 1994

Country/area and source of data	Type of disaster	Period covered and name of regions/areas seriously affected	Human damage (persons dead, affected)	Material damage (property, agriculture, public facilities and utilities, others)	Total estimated damage cost
Hong Kong Royal Observatory	Fog	8 March Offshore	2 dead/missing	2 ships lost/damaged	...
	Strong tropical storm Russ (9403)	3-9 June Area-wide	...	...	...
	Tropical storm Sharon (9404)	23-25 June Area-wide	5 injured 11 affected	1 building evacuated 2 ships lost/damaged	...
	Rainstorms	22-24 July Area-wide	6 dead/missing 20 injured 32 families became homeless 1 047 families affected	Houses/buildings 4 destroyed 61 damaged 2454 affected 836 ha farmland affected 2, 565 tonnes pond fish lost 8, 000 (3 sites) electric supply affected 300 people water supply affected 168 landslides/collapses	Loss of HK$24.4million agricultural production HK$4.4 million public works facilities HK$0.36million public utilities  Total damage cost estimated HK$ 29.16 million
	Rainstorms	6-10 Aug. Area-wide	1 dead 69 injured 38 families became homeless 221 families affected	Houses/buildings 8 destroyed 25 damaged 1,400 affected 198 ha farmland affected 208 tonnes pond fish lost 2,000 electric supply affected 38 landslides/collapses	Loss of HK$1.98million agricultural production HK$10.3 million public works facilities  Total damage cost estimated HK$ 12.28 million
	Rainstorms	16 Aug. Area-wide	3 families affected	1,000 electric supply affected 20 landslides/collapses	...
	Strong tropical storm Harry (9418)	25-29 Aug. Area-wide	1 dead 2 injured 30 people affected	1 tram service site damaged 2 ships lost/damaged	HK$1 million damage of fisheries  Total damage cost estimated HK$ 1.00 million
	Tropical storm Luke (9423)	7-14 Sep. Area-wide	...	...	...
	Winter monsoon	20 Oct. Wong Tai Sin	2 injured	...	...